

Na Fianna CLG is a thriving Gaelic Football, Hurling, Ladies Football and Camogie club catering for boys and girls from all ages up to adult level. The club is based in South Meath, in the town and townlands of Enfield, which according to the latest Census information, is classified as one of the youngest growing population centres in Ireland.

The club are now looking to appoint a Games Promotion Officer on a part time basis. This is an exciting opportunity for the ideal candidate to become an integral part of the future growth and development of the club.

ROLE SUMMARY

The post holder will be responsible for leading the Nursery to Under 20 games development and coaching programme within the club and our feeder schools at both primary and secondary level. The link between our club & schools is key to the future success of the club. The GPO will work with the local schools throughout the calendar year providing a coaching and coaching support role to maximise participation in Gaelic games. The role will focus on growing playing numbers and supporting coaches with the delivery of programmes in areas where our games needs support and attention. The work program for the post will be agreed on an ongoing basis with the Club Coaching and Games Development Sub-Committee.

This is a part time paid role within the club. The post holder will be required to work 20 hours per week, which may include weekends and evenings, and the hours may vary depending on workload and seasonal changes.
